GLEN GOULD - Biography

Glen is a North American Actor based in Canada. At the age of 19, he boarded a bus and left his home and family on the small East Coast island of Unama'ki (aka Cape Breton) to pursue his lifelong dream of being an Actor. He has since appeared in numerous Theater Productions and can be seen in over 50 TV & Film productions.

In Television, he is best known as Det. Jerry Commanda in the hit CTV series Cardinal and had recurring roles on Tribal, The Strain, Mohawk Girls & Blackstone, DaVinci's Inquest. Glen can also be seen in the Ireland-shot mini-series Dominion Creek (Seasons 1 & 2) and starred as Native Rancher, John Eagle in the APTN series Cashing In.

In Film, most recently, Glen worked on the feature film 8:37 REBIRTH and the Colorado set TV Pilot, Badwater. Prior to that, he recently starred opposite Bella Thorne in the feature film GIRL, which also starred Mickey Rourke.

Glen was recently nominated Best Supporting Actor at the 2020 RNFF for his performance in the award-winning film, Monkey Beach. In the past, Glen has received Best Actor Awards for the feature films North Mountain (RNFF) and Rhymes for Young Ghouls (2014 AIMPA). Glen was awarded the prestigious David Renton Award for Outstanding Performance by an Actor at the Atlantic Film Festival and the Best Actor at the Dreamspeaker's Film Festival for his role in the award-winning film, Charlie Zone.

In addition to Theater, TV & Film, Glen is known as for his rich voice, providing voice overs and narration for a numerous amount of TV Shows & Documentaries. He can currently be heard as the Narrator in the TV docu-series, The Wild Ones. He is known for his voice work in several animation productions, most notably as the voice of Bill Tukyuk on the hit series Yvon of the Yukon.

Glen has also embarked on a career as a musician, with his country-rock band, Donna's Boy.
